

Video Links: Methods and Curriculum Materials Development

- American English
A resource for teaching and learning about American English language and culture. This YouTube channel provides a variety of engaging materials and resources for teachers' professional development and for students (aged 14 and older) in the classroom.
- Becoming an ESOL Teacher
The speaker, Katy, talks about the experiences that inspired her to become an ESOL teacher and the feeling of wanting to do more to help her students.
- Classroom Systems for Language Learners
A podcast for teachers who may struggle with not having enough effective classroom systems. Divided into some easy to implement classroom systems for your classroom.
- ¡Colorín Colorado! Classroom Videos
¡Colorín Colorado! presents classroom videos highlighting effective instruction of English language learners (ELLs).
- Components of an ESOL Curriculum
A brief overview of the components that make up a comprehensive ESOL curriculum.
- Immersion Moises
Moises, a ten-year-old student, struggles to communicate in his new school with limited access to his native language.
- Methods and Approaches to Teaching English
A presentation on research, practice, and implementing techniques for teaching ESOL.
- Project Delta ESOL Instructional Videos, University of Florida

Video Series One:	Video Series Two:
Segment 1, Kim Cook	Segment 1, S. Abreu
Segment 2, Kim Cook	Segment 2, S. Abreu
- Reading Rockets Videos
Several links to varied videos to support teaching multilingual learners.
- SupportEd – Multilingual Resource Library
This site provides a variety of tools, including webinars and podcasts to support multilingual learners.
- The Gift
Dual Language Learners (DLLs) are children who are learning and developing in more than one language. Every DLL is given a precious gift by his family: the gift of their first language and home culture.